

OBP Library Membership Programme Terms and Conditions

1. Library membership will run for 12 months from the registration date.
2. OBP guarantees to publish at least 40 original Open Access titles during the membership period (if necessary, extending the period of membership until 40 titles have been published).
3. OBP will provide special privileges to any user accessing the www.openbookpublishers.com website from an IP address registered with OBP by a library member. Specifically, OBP will provide all such users with:
 - a. Unlimited free downloads of all published digital editions.
 - b. A discount of 15% on the price of all printed editions purchased by users directly from the OBP website.
 - c. A discount of 20% on the set-up costs incurred with the creation of OBPCustomised publications.
4. Sales of printed editions made directly to member libraries will be eligible to a 20% discount and free shipping. A discount of 30% and free shipping will be provided for orders above £150.
5. OBP will record and monitor University user accessing the OBP site through IP addresses registered by the library member, including the IP addresses used by services such as ezproxy. The library member will be responsible for informing and updating OBP about the IP addresses registered to the University.
6. OBP will provide library members with an annual report of usage. This will include usage and download statistics for the free digital editions from registered IP addresses.
7. Membership fees do not cover project costs and do not restrict the author's ability to apply for external grants.
8. Membership benefits may change from time to time. Members will be informed of any changes to membership terms and conditions prior to the date of their annual renewal.

September 2025